

WORKSHOP ON “AN ALIEN SPECIES DATABASE FOR THE CANARY CURRENT LARGE MARINE ECOSYSTEM”

Organized within the project

Invasive alien species and other ocean stressors: Furthering the scientific knowledge and capacity basis in the Canary Current Large Marine Ecosystem

5 May 2022 – On-line

4th project meeting

- Proposed title: Workshop on “An Invasive Alien Species database for the CCLME: progress and definitions to be applied”

We propose:

An in-depth discussion and agreement on the definitions to be applied.

A link to a glossary of terms available in the Convention on Biological Diversity’s website and definitions applied by the European Commission have been provided already under “Background documents” for today’s meeting - <https://oceanexpert.org/event/3557#documents>

A follow up on the first steps agreed during today’s workshop in what regards the development of the alien species database to be elaborated within the project (a datafile): summary of any further decisions taken virtually; data gathered so far; list of references; further discussion on the timeline, etc.

- Tentative dates: 9 June 2022 (11h – 14:30h CET)

4th project meeting

Definitions: material available to prepare ahead of the discussion
