TRANSPORTATION

Tunisia has an international airport which is 4 km away from the National Institute of Meteorology of Tunis.

It's recommended for all participants to arrange their own airport pick up. Taxis are available from the airport Arrivals level. Taxis are metered, so costs will vary.

A visit to the INM office will be organized and transportation will be provided by INM.

ACCOMMODATION

The local organizing committee had secured a limited number of rooms at a negotiated rate for single occupancy on bed, breakfast and lunch at the Royal ASBU hotel.

Participants receiving the financial assistance through DBCP trust fund shall arrange their accommodation at the Royal ASBU Hotel. Other self-funded participants are also highly encouraged to arrange their accommodation at the Royal ASBU Hotel, where the workshop will be taking place.

SECURITY

Tunisia is a politically stable country with a robust touristic infrastructure and strong security presence, but you should always bear in mind the following recommendations:

- Leave your passport, air ticket and other valuables in your hotel room safe-deposit box. Carry only the necessary cash, credit card and ID card.
- Please take care of your carry-on luggage, especially your personal laptop at all times.

TEMPERATURE

At this time of the year in Tunisia, the weather is likely to be relatively warm. The average maximum daytime temperature in Tunis in May lies at 27.0°C. The average minimum temperature is 16.0°C (usually the minimum temperature is noted at night) and it is likely to be sunny with little chance of rain.
