A new roadmap for Island Changemakers

Who can be an Ambassador?

Anyone passionate about islands and motivated to help drive sustainable development in their communities can become an Ambassador.

Applicants can be of any age and from anywhere. They must be highly motivated to represent their island/country in our network and commit to participating in meetings, training sessions, and the proposed activities. Please note that organisations can also be designated as Ambassadors.

Networking & collaboration

Get the chance to meet like-minded people from islands around the globe, learn and share knowledge, work together to create collaborative databases with challenges, solutions, and inspiration for the sustainable development of island communities.

- Networking sessions
- Collaborative activities
- Knowledge sharing

Benefits of the Ambassador Program

- Opportunities to network with other ambassadors and sustainability experts from around the globe
- Exclusive training sessions on sustainable development, social impact, communications, and more
- Opportunities to organize virtual hubs with our support within your community
- Opportunities to showcase your island and connect with the global island community
- Opportunities to actively participate in Island Innovation virtual events such as the Virtual Island Summit

THANK YOU

MUCHAS GRACIAS
